Make It Your Own: CUSTOM DESIGN

Creating your own signature piece of custom jewelry is an exciting collaborative process. If you are thinking about it, set up a meeting with one of our Jewelry Specialists in a private jewelry salon to learn how it works.

Bring in your ideas, vision and sketches or photos if you like, and they will guide you in selecting the right designer or studio with whom to collaborate. Few things are more meaningful than creating a one-of-a-kind piece for yourself (and to pass down) that uniquely captures your personal style and spirit.
